OREGON SYMPHONY

Sip. Savor. Symphony.

August 2005 Vol. 1 Iss. 5

Soirée tickets available online August 22

This year, participating in Soirée is as easy as buying a single ticket. Due to the high number of requests, we have created a Soirée package that includes a discounted ticket in the lower balcony and entry into all of our receptions. No membership fees; no confusion. Simply log on to our Web site and order your tickets.

Already have tickets to our pre-selected Soirée concerts and just want to join the party? Reception tickets are also available for purchase. For more details, visit www.orsymphony.org/soiree

Soirée Announcements

Soirée welcomes PRSA to our first Soirée of the season, Roberta Flack, on Saturday, October 8. With limited space, this Soirée is sure to sell out!

Summer sizzles with the Symphony

Looking for a great way to picnic in the park and enjoy classical music outdoors? Grab friends, a good bottle of wine and join us for Oregon Symphony in the Neighborhoods. The best part about it? It's free! The following performances will take place with the full orchestra this summer:

Saturday, August 27, 2005

Woodlawn Park, NE 13th and Dekum. Afternoon activities for families and kids begin at 3 p.m., Symphony concert at 7 p.m.

Sponsored by Health Net.

Thursday, September 1, 2005

Tom McCall Waterfront Park, downtown Portland in the bowl area south of the Hawthorne Bridge. Portland Youth Philharmonic at 5 p.m., Symphony concert at 7 p.m., followed by fireworks and cannons!

Sponsored by Microsoft.

Additional support from: City of Portland, Regional Arts & Culture Council, NW Natural, Kink fm 102, Northwest NewsChannel 8, Portland Tribune, Safeco Insurance, Portland Parks & Recreation, Grady Britton
